

Robert L. Johnson To Join Discovery, Inc. Board Of Directors

December 14, 2020

Board Member S. Decker Anstrom to Step Down at the end of 2020

NEW YORK, Dec. 14, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Discovery, Inc. (Nasdaq: DISCA, DISCB, DISCK) today announced that Robert L. Johnson will join the company's Board of Directors, effective January 1, 2021.

Johnson was founder and chairman of Black Entertainment Television (BET) and is also the founder and chairman of The RLJ Companies, LLC, an innovative business network, and owns or holds interests in businesses operating in hotel real estate, private equity, 401k fintech services, automobile dealerships, content streaming, gaming and sports betting.

"Bob is a legendary entrepreneur and one of media's true pioneers and innovators, dating back to his creation of BET and continuing throughout his distinguished career," said Robert Miron, Chairman of Discovery's Board of Directors. "As we embark on a transformative year for Discovery, we are honored to add Bob as an independent director. We look forward to benefiting from his business acumen and exceptional track record in media."

The company also announced that S. Decker Anstrom, who has served on the Board since 2012 as a preferred stock director, will step down from the Board, effective December 31, 2020. Susan M. Swain, a current common stock director on the Discovery Board, will assume Mr. Anstrom's role as a preferred stock director.

"We are grateful to Decker for his many years of outstanding contributions to the Discovery Board," continued Mr. Miron. "Discovery's stockholders have been well served by the dynamic skillset and wealth of experience in media, finance and government that Decker brought to our Board."
